FINAL EXAMS

Final Exams

Per the Academic Senate EPC Policy on Examinations:

- Final exams are required in all undergraduate classes except laboratory classes. In some instances, if approved by the Committee on Educational Policy (CEP) on the course approval form, the exam can be a final paper or special project.
- When enrolling in classes, students should check the final exam schedule to avoid any conflicts.
All final exams must be given during the scheduled times.
- No student may be excused from assigned final examinations.

Final Exams

Per the Academic Senate EPC Policy on Examinations:

An instructor may administer an examination at an alternative time only if a valid reason is given by the student for not taking the regularly scheduled examination.

Valid reasons include:

- serious illness
- family disasters
- religious obligation (governed by the UC San Diego policy on religious accommodation. Request must be submitted by the second week of instruction)

Student is required to provide supporting documentation as requested by instructor.

INCOMPLETE RESULT

Eligibility to Request an Incomplete

How to determine if you are eligible:

- When circumstances beyond a student's control prohibit taking the final exam or completing course work, a student may request an incomplete with supporting documentation.
- Students must have completed the majority of the coursework at a passing level at the time of the request. If you're not passing a class, you're not eligible for an Incomplete.

Eligible:

Serious Illness
Family Emergency
(Documentation required)

NOT Eligible:

Travel
Scheduling conflict
More Time Needed
Student is failing the course

- Students must submit their request for an incomplete within the required deadline. The deadline for filing an incomplete is the first working day after finals examination week.

How to Request an Incomplete

Steps to Request an Incomplete.

1. Contact your instructor to verify that you are eligible. Have documentation ready to submit when determining eligibility. If you are not passing the course at the time of your request, you are not eligible. Be sure to contact your instructor prior to the deadline for submission.
2. Your instructor will make individual arrangements with you for the timely completion of the work.
3. An “I” result will be recorded on your academic transcript. An “I” result does not waive prerequisite requirements for other courses.
4. Students must complete the work to remove the Incomplete on or before the date agreed upon with the instructor and in time for the instructor to assign a grade before the last day of finals week the following quarter.

How to Resolve an Incomplete

- Complete the work to remove the Incomplete on or before the date agreed upon with the instructor and in time for the instructor to assign a grade before the last day of finals week the following quarter. If an incomplete is not resolved by this date, it will lapse to an "F"

Students cannot enroll in the same course the following quarter if there is a pending incomplete.

- Instructor submits the final grade; academic history is updated accordingly.
- If a student fails the course, and it was a required prerequisite for another course, they will be automatically dropped from any other courses requiring the prerequisite course.

All information pertaining to incompletes is listed under Academic Senate Regulation 500.B and can be found in the catalog of record under “Academic Regulations and Policies: Grading.”

RETROACTIVE WITHDRAWAL

Types of Retroactive Withdrawals

Retroactive Withdrawal from a Quarter:

This type of retro withdrawal can be requested when a student has not been able to complete any coursework at a passing level due to documented serious personal circumstances. Exceptions to the Week 6 withdrawal deadline are rarely granted and will only be considered in cases of documented serious personal circumstances (e.g., hospitalization) which prevented the timely submission of the request.

Retroactive Withdrawal from a Course:

A retro withdrawal from an individual course can be requested when a student has not been able to complete coursework for the class at a passing level due to documented serious personal circumstances, but has been able to complete coursework in other classes.

The retroactive withdrawal petition must demonstrate how/why a student's extraordinary circumstances impacted one course and not the others.

Requesting a Retroactive Withdrawal:

This is only an option for students with extenuating circumstances.
To determine eligibility, first meet with your college advising office.

To request a retroactive withdrawal from the entire QUARTER:

- Submit an Undergraduate Student Petition with a request for W for each course, a personal statement, and supporting documentation of extenuating circumstances to the relevant College Advising Office.
- If the request for retroactive withdrawal is submitted before the end of Week 10, the College makes the final decision.
- If the request for retroactive withdrawal is submitted after Week 10, the College reviews the petitions and if approved, sends it to the Academic Senate for final review.

To request a retroactive withdrawal from a COURSE:

First submit petition to the instructor and the department. If approved, follow all steps listed above.
